Summer is Here!

BBQ 's, summer picnics, care free strolls in our front yard, vacations, dog day afternoons, AND HAPPY HOUR. Some things everyone loves!

Crossroads would like to invite you to our "Happy Hour" every Friday at 3:00. We invite you to share a drink and a snack with someone you love. Give yourself a break from the heat, kick off your shoes, and listen to some good music. Invite your friends and neighbors to come along. Jim Roland will be signing for us at HAPPY HOUR on July 9th.

You will see balloons flying in the breeze at the model duplex for an OPEN HOUSE every Friday in July starting on the 9th. We will have muffin mornings at 1353 Unit A starting at 9:00 am on July 9, 16, 23, and 30th. Come join us for a fresh homemade muffin and cup of coffee.

If you know a friend or loved one that could use some information about our facility, refer them to Karen or myself. If they move in, you or your family member could qualify for a discount on your next months rent. Come and talk to Karen or myself for details.

I look forward to you joining us in our front yard and patio this summer. We have so much to enjoy!

Life is a great bundle of little things!
Diane

The Grill is On

By Karen Coble

Kevin, our chef and cook extraordinaire will be firing up the grill every Friday during the summer to give our residents those delicious tastes of summer. We all enjoy a sizzling hamburger or bratwurst right off the grill and Crossroads likes to keep the “good times rollin”

Welcome Wagon

Crossroads is pleased to welcome Lyle Schum. He has moved here from New Mexico to be close to family here. His son and daughter-in-law are living in Cedaredge and are glad to find somewhere close and SO NICE for their Dad to live. Welcome Lyle, we hope you love it here, as much as we love having you.

Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you , Happy Birthday dear.....

Resident Spotlight

By Karen Coble

Charlotte Udd has been with Crossroads for several years. She came into the Independent Cottages and recently has moved into the assisted living apartments. This is one of the nice things about Crossroads; we can accommodate many different levels of care here.

Charlotte was born in Denver and moved to this area around 1950. She worked as an accountant for the school district here in Delta. Charlotte worked as a homemaker raising her four children; two of them are still in this area. She enjoyed knitting, sewing, gardening and embroidery, and has several beautiful embroidered pieces of her own hanging in her room.

When Charlotte and her husband came to Cedaredge, the town was just talking about setting up Pioneer Town to save some of the history of this area in a museum that included the actual buildings that were Cedaredge originals . Charlotte and her husband decided that the preservation of this town's heritage was a very worthy cause. They threw themselves headlong into the raising of funds, going door to door for donations , and the setting up of the museum. The funds were raised and tons of donated items were gone through and cleaned and displays were made, buildings were moved and WALA! Pioneer town was created. Charlotte herself donated some antique clothing and other items to the cause. If you haven't already been there, Pioneer Town is definately worth the visit.

Charlotte mentioned that when they first started talking about the museum there were actually a lot of people that grew up here and their parents pioneered this area. “It's been quite an experience”. A lot of schools come for their class trips and really enjoy learning about how people lived back in their grandparents time, walking into the same shops that people actually made their living from, seeing the old school house and one of the original family cabins- the Peterson's place which had 9 children! All of a sudden that room (their OWN room) they have been complaining is too small seems huge!

Today Charlotte loves to read. She enjoys reading biographies, and history, she particularly enjoys the Smithsonian magazine. She is currently working on getting old photos from her family together. Charlotte did a lot of traveling the US, went to Scandinavia, New Zealand, England, Scotland, Israel and her favorite-Australia. She is very interesting, always has a smile, and we are so glad she is here!

The men of Crossroads Delta enjoyed a BBQ lunch for celebration of Father's Day. Guests of our residents young and old, joined us for traditional BBQ pork chops with corn on the cob.

Warm peach cobbler with ice cream was the rave. Fish'in and bears were the topic of conversation as well as the importance of our Dad's who really do... "Have a handle for everything." -By Pam McGee

Christmas in July will be Friday July 30th from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Proceeds from this craft sale will supplement our Christmas Celebration. Please mark this on your calendars! Lovely home made crafts and pretties from the residents of Crossroads will be available for your Christmas gift season. -By Pam McGee

Dad, On This Your Special Day

By Karen Coble

DAD, ON THIS YOUR SPECIAL DAY
Strengthened and upholder
Worker and Provider
Disciplinarian and Teacher
Guide and Friend

The inheritance that you gave us
With patience and tough love
The values that you taught us
With wisdom from above
Pouring yourself out daily,
In selflessness and love,
Cannot be captured adequately
By words expressed ineffectually
But, gratefully we all say
THANK YOU DAD,
ON THIS YOUR SPECIAL DAY
